The Children's Hour

Director's Notes

It is always a pleasure to direct at the Guild. We have our own space and can build a set in the first week of rehearsal, (never really happens though). We can rehearse with props and furniture, have costumes in the ready and not have to put all that away because someone else needs the space. So it has been an honor to direct the first production of Lillian Hellman's The Children's Hour. We had 70 people audition and could have cast the show 5 different ways. We chose their strength, acting ability and dedication. Some of the youth have been in our programs and others come from varied backgrounds. They make a great addition to the show. The tech in this show is difficult, because of a change of location in the show.

Many thanks to all who have given some of their summer to make this show fun to work on.

Special thanks to Thad O'Donnell as Assistant Director.

And now a word from the President of the Guild!

Welcome to the 92nd season of TGWG. We had a productive summer. Youth Theatre in June, Production of Portrait of Christina in July and major repairs to the theatre in August. Ladies we have two new toilets, there is no more fear of falling into the basement! Also, new banisters by the driveway. When you grab hold they will not sway in the breeze. Our resident wasp nest over the front door has been removed. So we welcome you to our first production Lillian Hellman's The Children's Hour.
