Dearly Departed

Director's Notes

What a joy and privilege to be directing the first show of the Theatre Guild's 88th season, the theater company that produced an early Tennessee Williams play back in 1936, serving the community since 1926.

The first offering of the season, "Dearly Departed" has been a staple for community theater performances since it was first performed in 1991. The cast and crew have worked tirelessly, supporting each other and coming together to help make this one of the Theatre Guild's most fun productions. I hope you agree.

We thank you for your patronage. It isn't a show without, you, the audience.

Joe O'Connor
Director

In Memoriam

Marilynne Diane Brayfield

Diane came into our lives at TGWG in 2010 when she came to see a show. In her ever helpful spirit she wanted to volunteer to help out in some way. She became a member and she helped out at the door and in hospitality (when she wasn't busy elsewhere) and she was even in one play. She was Hoot Owl. Most of all, she had fun. When she was around she was always telling us about all the volunteering she did. She was one busy lady. She loved telling jokes and she loved laughing at her own jokes. She filled our lives with happiness. We will miss her. ♥
