Moon Over Buffalo

Director's Notes

This play represents to me what an actor is all about. George and Charlotte Hay are very "me" characters very much involved with themselves. However, they have some redeeming qualities which makes the play work. As the play progresses you will see them evolve into "normal people" finally aware of the "comic timing" necessary for the play to work which I feel the actors have accomplished. I hope you will be as worn out at the end as I was just directing the show. The cast has worked very hard to accomplish this "feeling" so sit back and enjoy a trip to Buffalo, New York.
