Director's Notes

This is a show for pet lovers. Since I can remember, I have always had dogs in my family. While we have had our share of mutts and pure breeds over the years, my favorite pets have always been mine, my parents', and my sister's Irish Setters. When I first assistant-directed Sylvia in senior year of high school, my drama teacher willingly modeled the character of Sylvia off of my then-Irish Setter, Megan. She was a dog much like Sylvia, with her own equal mix of mischief and love! Some sixteen years later, when I was given the opportunity to direct this play in my own right, I did so with the understanding that Greg's love for Sylvia mirrored, in many ways, my personal love for my own Irish Setter, Maggie. Last year, we had to say goodbye to my Maggie. However, I feel that her spirit lives on in this show. For those of you who are pet lovers—whether your personal animal babies are cats, dogs, snakes, lizards, birds, or whatever—I think that you, like myself, will especially get the message of this delightful piece.

Enjoy!
