Cat's Cradle

Director's Notes

A Murder! Oh what fun! Don't we all love a murder mystery? This psychological mystery thriller takes place in the small English village of Waverton. Twelve years ago a 6 month old baby boy was kidnapped and the case is still unsolved. The play opens on the eve of the older sister's wedding day. Detective Frost shows up and is determined to solve the case before he retires. And as in all small close-knit communities, no one likes outsiders. Come with us to this small village, put on your detective hats and help Detective Frost solve this mystery. See if you can find the guilty person.... or persons. It is so much fun trying to figure out all the clues.

A very special thanks to John Austerman who built the set and to Barb Mulligan, Judy Moebeck, Kim Herman and Claire Acheson who helped paint and find all the needed props to make the show a success. A special thanks to Mary Wessel who did a fantastic job on our marquee. I love it! And I could never forget Ray Saur, who is always ready to build a lovely and much needed front desk. (He's so good!) And of course a special thanks to Larry Zerega, our sound technician, who put together all of our knocks, bells, rings and whistles and had the cool idea for the music.

And thanks to the fabulous cast who really got into the play and made it go by fast. And many, many thanks to Barb Mulligan, my fabulous AD, who has helped in so many big and small ways behind the scenes to make this play not only a success, but fun!
